2025-26 AHSVCA COACH OF THE YEAR AWARDS

AHSVCA Coach of the Year Class 1A - Ginger McArthur, Fayetteville School

Ginger McArthur has guided Fayetteville School to a 77-34 record over three seasons, including a 28-9 finish in 2025. Her growth-focused approach challenges athletes through tough schedules and elite tournaments, preparing them for the next level. Under her leadership, three players have signed to play collegiately, two earned spots on the 2025 AHSVCA 1A All-State First Team, and her daughter Kenleigh was named 2024 AHSVCA 1A Player of the Year.

A six-year coaching veteran, McArthur began with junior varsity before taking over Fayetteville’s varsity program in 2023. That same year, she earned Talladega County and Small School Coach of the Year honors. Known for high standards and fostering strong relationships with families, she continues to raise the bar for small-school volleyball.

AHSVCA Coach of the Year Class 2A - Jennifer Mann, Pleasant Valley High School

Jennifer Mann, head coach of Pleasant Valley High School Volleyball, has guided her team to consecutive AHSAA 2A State Championships in 2024 and 2025, compiling a 60-32 record over two seasons with a 65% winning percentage. She also played a key role in the program’s 2023 state title as an assistant coach. With 11 years of coaching experience—nine at Pleasant Valley—Coach Mann has earned multiple honors, including the 2024 AHSVCA, AHSAA, and Calhoun County 2A Coach of the Year awards.

Her influence extends beyond the court. Guided by her faith, she instills character, discipline, and perseverance in her athletes. A former Gadsden State volleyball scholarship athlete, Mann enjoys cooking, relaxing outdoors, and spending time with her husband Brian and their four children.

AHSVCA Coach of the Year Class 3A - Beverly Barron, Dadeville High School

Beverly Barron has revitalized Dadeville High School’s volleyball program in just two seasons as head coach, leading the team to a 10-10 record in 2025 after three winless years prior to her arrival. Her leadership has brought structure, confidence, and growth, with the team now participating in camps and earning a third-place finish in their area.

A retired educator from Florida with 32 years of coaching experience, Barron is a two-time Teacher of the Year and has earned recognition for her coaching at both school and district levels. She is known for her dedication to developing athletes and building a foundation for long-term success. Under her guidance, Dadeville’s volleyball future looks brighter than ever.

AHSVCA Coach of the Year Class 4A - Kaylon Cantrell, Prattville Christian Academy

Kaylon Cantrell has led Prattville Christian Academy volleyball for 14 seasons, earning nearly 400 career wins and guiding the Panthers to a spot in the 2025 AHSAA Class 4A State Finals. Her program has achieved consistent success including three state titles (2022, 2024) and multiple deep postseason runs, including Elite 8 (2019, 2023) and Final Four appearances (2020, 2025).

A PCA alum and former Faulkner University volleyball player, Cantrell was named the 2025 Autauga County Coach of the Year. Her coaching philosophy is rooted in community and character. Also serving as PCA’s tennis coach, she is known for her inspirational leadership and her commitment to developing student-athletes with integrity, discipline, and passion for the game.

Melissa-Paul Gardner has revitalized Guntersville High School Volleyball in her first season as head coach, guiding the team to an impressive 64-5 record and 2025 Class 5A State Championship. Prior to returning to Alabama, she also led Cowan High School to an Indiana state title in 2019 and a Final Four appearance in 2020. Her coaching journey includes club, collegiate, and high school success, and she continues to mentor elite athletes through the Bama Elite Volleyball Club.

A native of Hartselle, Alabama, Gardner’s deep passion for inspiring young athletes has inspired her team and community. On October 17, she and her husband Randy welcomed a baby girl—just days before returning to lead her team through the postseason.

AHSVCA Coach of the Year Class 6A - Justin Kisor, Spain Park High School

In just his second season at Spain Park High School, Justin Kisor has guided the Jaguars to a 38-19 record and a Final Four appearance. With an overall career record of 228-138 across eight seasons, Kisor’s programs have earned five area championships, seven regional appearances, and three trips to the state tournament.

Kisor is respected by fellow coaches for his integrity, mentorship, and passion for the sport. He is known for building strong relationships with his athletes and instilling life lessons that extend far beyond the court. His leadership has helped five players continue their careers at the collegiate level, and his commitment to character development and competitive excellence continues to elevate the standard of volleyball in Alabama.

AHSVCA Coach of the Year Class 7A - April Marsh, Austin High School Volleyball

April Marsh, head coach of Austin High School volleyball, guided her team to a stellar 44-9 record and an appearance in the AHSAA Class 7A Final Four this season. In just her second year at Austin, she has instilled a disciplined, growth-driven approach that has elevated the program’s performance and consistency. Her leadership focuses on player development and team culture, creating a foundation for sustained success.

With 26 years of coaching experience—21 as a head coach—Marsh owns an all-time record of 784-263 and a .75 winning percentage. Her career highlights include a 2013 state championship, three runner-up finishes, and two previous State Coach of the Year honors. A respected voice in the sport, she has served on the AHSAA Volleyball Coaches Committee and impacted programs across Alabama, including Coffee, Deshler, Hazel Green, Bob Jones, Brooks, and Austin, as well as United and Grit Volleyball Clubs.
